MUTUAL RESTRAINING ORDER

A complaint for divorce having been filed in this matter, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

1. Both parties are restrained from threatening, abusing, annoying, or interfering with the other party or the parties' child(ren);
2. Both parties are restrained from creating or incurring debt (such as a credit card) in the name of the other party or in the parties' joint names or causing a lien or loan to be placed against any of their real or personal property;
3. Both parties are restrained from selling, disposing of, or dissipating any asset, real or personal property (other than regular income), including without limitation: Existing bank accounts, tax refunds, or bonuses of other party or a child;
4. Both parties are restrained from removing household goods and furniture from the marital residence without the approval of the court or other party;

5. Both parties are restrained from changing or failing to renew the present health, life, home, automobile or other insurance coverage and from removing the other party as beneficiary on any life or retirement benefit without further order of this court;
6. Both parties are restrained from changing or establishing a new residence for the parties' minor children without the written consent of the other party or permission of the Court.
7. These Orders shall not prevent the payment of ordinary and necessary business and living expenses consistent with the practice of the parties during the marriage.
8. These Orders shall remain in force during the pendency of this action unless the court otherwise orders.

These restraints shall be imposed by the Court as mutual restraining orders which shall be accepted by Plaintiff upon the filing of the complaint and shall be served upon the Defendant along with the summons pursuant to Plaintiff's request or instructions for service. Upon Plaintiff's filing of the complaint, Plaintiff is deemed to have notice of the mutual restraining order and Plaintiff shall be served by ordinary mail.
